

Shannon going to the top

22

Maragon's National Eisteddfod Academy Awards

Ruimsig — This competition of the NEA runs over a period of eighteen months. During the 2010 to 2011 season, more than 10, in the various categories.

Maragon Private School's semi-finalists are Teagan van der Merwe, Nicole Philips, Cameron Wills, Arusha van Assen and Kaelin Wills.

During the final round on 21 May, which included all the categories, only 19 participants were invited, and Kaelin Wills once again qualified to compete in this very prestigious event. He competed with pupils from different ages from primary and high schools, and did Maragon proud to be one of the semi-finalists.

Teagan van der Merwe, Nicole Philips, Cameron Wills, Arusha van Assen and Kaelin Wills. Picture submitted.

Northsider, 23 June

Maragon makes its martial arts mark

Ruimsig — The following Judokas from Maragon Private School have been selected to represent Western Gauteng at the forthcoming South African Championships, to be held in Cape Town, from 26 June to 2 July: Matthew Whyte, Reece Allum, Michaela Grove, Shalyn van der Heever, Cameron van der Heever, Stephanos Roditis, Michaela Grove, Reece Allum, Simon Webber (Junior Boys' Captain), and Shalyn van der Heever.

Picture from left to right back: Stephanos Roditis, Reece Allum, Matthew Wayte
From left to right front: Cameron van den Heever, Simon Webber, Shalyn van den Heever. Picture submitted.

The pick of the hockey crop

Ruimsig — Shannon Valamvanos, a Grade 9 pupil at Maragon High School, has been selected for the Under-16 C Girls Southern Gauteng Hockey side for 2011. They will compete in the National Tournament from 25 to 29 June at Whiteriver. Picture submitted.

