

Monique Theron, Masechaba Moloji and Janine McKay recently received their honours blazers, in recognition of outstanding achievements in academics, sport, culture and leadership. Picture submitted.

Honours blazers awarded for three pupils

Ruimsig — Maragon Private School is proud to announce that three Matric pupils have each recently achieved a white honours blazer.

Monique Theron was awarded in recognition of her achievement of three full colours for culture, two full colours for sport and full colours for leadership.

An honours blazer was bestowed upon Masechaba Moloji, in recognition of her achievements of three full colour awards for sport, and half-colours for leadership.

Janine McKay received her blazer in recognition of her achievements of three full colour awards for culture, and half-colours for leadership. These three pupils are highly respected members of the prefect body at Maragon High School, and their involvement in school activities is exemplary and much admired by their peers.

A muscle extravaganza

Ruimsig — The International Federation of Bodybuilders, South Africa, is proud to present its National Novice Championships.

The main show will take place at Maragon Private School on Saturday, 30 April, at 5pm, preceded by an athletes' briefing at 8am, and pre-judging at 9am.

Entrance fees are R60 per adult for the main show, and R30 for pupils. Children under the age of six get free entry. Entry for the pre-judging is R20 per person.

• Details: Contact the provincial chairman, Leoni Canadas, 083 413 7541.